NEW AND EXCITING!

Jerry Mitchell

We love new things and new ways to do things! New babies have come into our midst recently and more are on the way. Filling up the Nursery is a good step for any church. Plans for new curriculum and remodeled rooms and new teaching methods for Kindergarten through Elementary are now moving from planning to actual preparation work. As April begins, we plan to be into those remodeled rooms and to begin the new curriculum. There will be opportunities for class leaders, teachers, workers in classrooms and materials and for encouragers. If you want to help in this exciting work, see Brian McDonald or C.J. Ryan.

New adult Wednesday classes began last Wednesday night. We really encourage you to be in those classes every Wednesday. We all need that mid-week boost to get us through the week and stay spiritually strong as we do.

New opportunities abound. Randy English and Robert Staples have outlined great opportunities to assist with tremendous radio/internet outreach from the communication center on Gaither Mountain in Arkansas. Sign-up is underway for the campaign in June going to Wichita, Kansas to assist with outreach and a VBS. After an exciting trip last year, many are looking forward to going back to Wichita for a very different approach this year. New opportunities may be next door or in our own neighborhood. We need lots of people to contact Jay Mitchell or Jason Howton about working our booth at First Fridays in Florence and also booths at Founders' Day in Killen and some other outreach opportunities this year where people will come to us looking for the gospel teaching through literature we have to share.

New is great, but remember that our mission is to continue to "tell the old, old story". The gospel message does not change. What a miracle it is that we can have in our hands words from God that are designed to help us and all people through the ages to be saved in Heaven eternally! This just can't be kept to ourselves.

As we tell the story, plan your best way to help. In addition to opportunities listed above, you can be a part of Barnabas team outreach, participate in Nursing Home/ Assisted Living Services (one is planned this afternoon) or encourage a study with family or neighbors that are not faithful to the Lord's Church. Excitement abounds here. Share in this excitement as we worship and work together.
